4           WHEREAS, RCW 70.105.220 requires local governments to prepare and 5           implement local hazardous waste plans, and

6           WHEREAS, the Local Hazardous Waste Management Program ("the program") 7           was launched in 1990 to fulfill that state statute through the efforts of a coalition of local 8           governments including the city of Seattle, King County and other cities and Tribes within 9           King County, and

10          WHEREAS, the King County Board of Health, in BOH chapter 2.08, established 11          and authorizes the program's management coordination committee ("the committee") to 12          prepare and implement the required plans through the coalition of governments 13          represented on the committee, and

14          WHEREAS, the committee summarized, from those plans, the program's mission,

16          by reducing the threat posed by the production, use, storage and disposal of hazardous 17          materials, and

18          WHEREAS, the program's last plan update was in 2010, and, since that time,

22 approach the program is trying to take to reduce or prevent the use of hazardous 23 components in products during their manufacture, and

24 WHEREAS, on June 18, 2020, the board passed Resolution 20-08, declaring 25 racism a public health crisis, and it has been demonstrated that Black, Indigenous and 26 People of Color experience lower outcomes related to health, housing, income, education, 27 employment and criminal justice due to institutional and systemic racism, and

28 WHEREAS black, Indigenous, and people of color can be disproportionately 29 exposed to hazardous materials, and

30 WHEREAS the program has a vision that race is not a determinate of hazardous 31 waste exposure, and

32 WHEREAS, the program assessed its past approaches and activities, and worked 33 to obtain input from the public and its partner agencies, to develop a plan update that 34 comprehensively addresses changes since 2010, including changes in populations and 35 businesses, changes in hazardous products and materials and changes in the program's

At any time, you may request from us a paper copy of any record provided or made available electronically to you by us. You will have the ability to download and print documents we send to you through the DocuSign system during and immediately after signing session and, if you elect to create a DocuSign signer account, you may access them for a limited period of time (usually 30 days) after such documents are first sent to you. After such time, if you wish for us to send you paper copies of any such documents from our office to you, you will be charged a $0.00 per-page fee. You may request delivery of such paper copies from us by following the procedure described below.

If you elect to receive required notices and disclosures only in paper format, it will slow the speed at which we can complete certain steps in transactions with you and delivering services to you because we will need first to send the required notices or disclosures to you in paper format, and then wait until we receive back from you your acknowledgment of your receipt of such paper notices or disclosures. To indicate to us that you are changing your mind, you must withdraw your consent using the DocuSign 'Withdraw Consent' form on the signing page of a DocuSign envelope instead of signing it. This will indicate to us that you have withdrawn your consent to receive required notices and disclosures electronically from us and you will no longer be able to use the DocuSign system to receive required notices and consents electronically from us or to sign electronically documents from us.

All notices and disclosures will be sent to you electronically

To reduce the chance of you inadvertently not receiving any notice or disclosure, we prefer to provide all of the required notices and disclosures to you by the same method and to the same address that you have given us. Thus, you can receive all the disclosures and notices electronically or in paper format through the paper mail delivery system. If you do not agree with this process, please let us know as described below.
