

HOW THE COLLABORATIVE NETWORK WORKS

We provide staffing, lab and materials support for Tuberculosis Programs around the state and facilitate connections among network partners.

The mission of WTCN is to promote effective and efficient models of tuberculosis control and prevention in Washington State.

WTCN

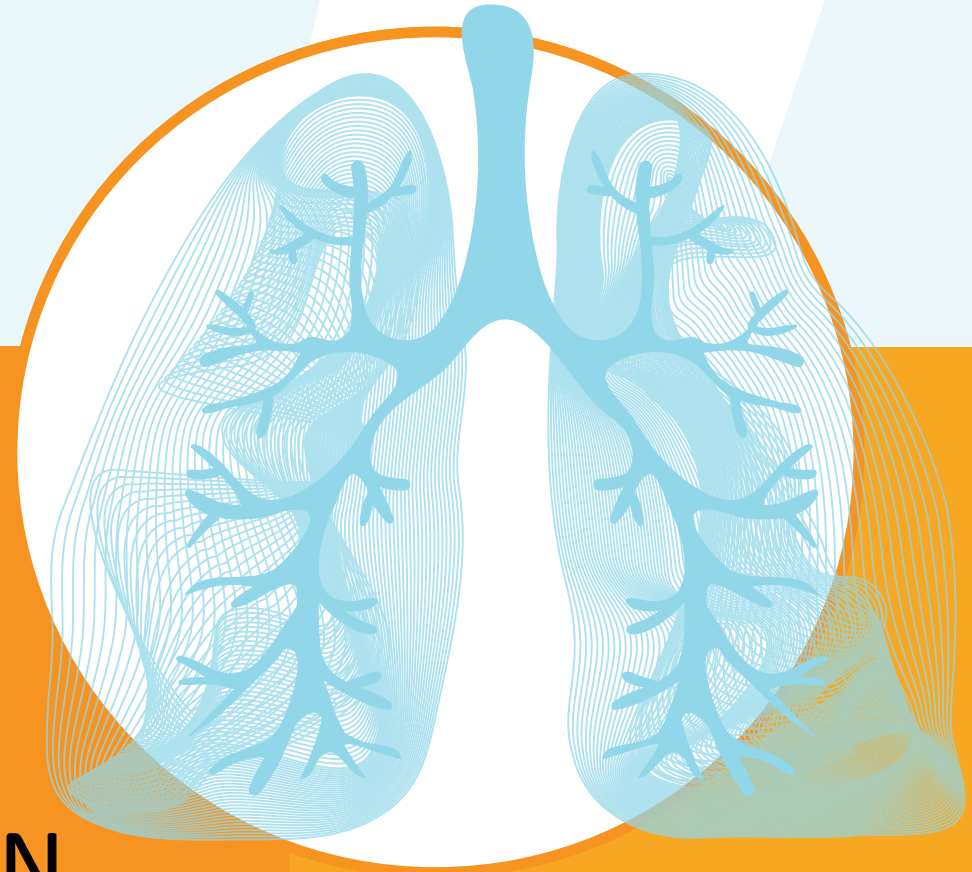

WASHINGTON TB COLLABORATIVE NETWORK

Washington TB Collaborative Network partners include:

The Washington State Department of Health Tuberculosis Program

Public Health - Seattle & King County Tuberculosis Control Program

All interested Local Health Jurisdiction Tuberculosis programs and Tribal Health Tuberculosis Programs

206.790.9283

tb.wa@wtcnservices.com

STAFFING SUPPORT

- Consultations
- Job shadowing
- Congregate setting investigations

QFT LAB SUPPORT

- Cost savings
- Single blood collection tube
- Newest generation test

RESOURCES SUPPORT

- Educational materials
- Database support
- Communication templates

SERVICES PROVIDED

- Shoulder to shoulder training including:
 - Case management
 - Household contact investigations
 - Directly Observed Therapy (DOT)
 - Latent TB Infection (LTBI)
- Real-time consultation

- Outbreak investigation interviews and analysis
- Large-scale screening planning and operations
- Emergency staffing support
- Assistance in adopting and/or maintaining electronic or video observation therapy

- Legal intervention assistance
- Lab support
- Communications support
- TB ECHO telementorship conferences

Or other support identified by a local health jurisdiction!