Racism is a Public Health Crisis

- We've now have three Community Equity Teams that are focusing on what Public Health can do to improve relationships in the King County:
- Devon Love, Black Community
- Giselle Zapata Garcia, Hispanic/LatinX
- Bishaw Gezie, African Immigrant

Exchange Listening Sessions

- In preparation for the new health insurance for Non-Citizens we hosted Listening Sessions in Hispanic/Latin Community.
- Hosted “7” different sessions: Purepecha, Lake City Collective, University of Washington, Brazilian/Portuguese community, Para Los Ninos, Vashon Island, South County Promotoras.
- Highlight of responses: Most would enroll but they would want the help of a trusted community partner (i.e. Navigator).
- What’s Next: We’re adding more agencies to the King County Navigator Network in preparation for the new program(s): Empower Next Generations & Latino Education Training Institute.
