King County Permits provides most customer services online

Permit applications

- You can submit many permit application types through MyBuildingPermit.com. A list of these online application types is available on our website.

- You can submit application types that aren't available through MyBuildingPermit.com electronically by doing the following:

  1. Review submittal requirements, application forms, and supporting document requirements on our info sheets and forms web page.

  2. Prepare your application materials for electronic submittal. Convert all documents and plan sets to PDF format as outlined in the Electronic Plan Requirements handout.

  3. Email your completed Permit Application Form with your submittal package to PermitCenter.DPER@kingcounty.gov. Include your supporting application materials in your email. For large files, please let us know if you'd like to use a cloud sharing service such as DropBox, Google Docs, OneDrive, Adobe Cloud, etc. to send us your submittal files

- Download information and an application form for pre-application meeting requests.

King County Permitting Portal (https://aca-prod.accela.com/kingco/)

- Look up permit status and details, pay fees, file a code enforcement complaint
- Find inspection scheduling instructions, schedule inspections, view results, cancel inspections

King County Permits website (https://kingcounty.gov/permits)

Most questions can be answered by visiting our website, including those related to…

- Property research
- Permitting process information, forms, and handouts

Other service changes to be aware of

- We no longer accept paper permit applications by drop-off or by mail.
- We no longer accept payment of permit fees by cash or check in our lobby. Please pay fees online.
