

East King County Youth Traffic Court Student Volunteer Application

Note: Use this application if you would like to volunteer to be on the Youth Traffic Court team. Do not use this form if you would like to ask the Court to determine if you are eligible to have Youth Traffic Court handle a ticket you received from law enforcement (see instead, the “Request form – Youth Traffic Court” on the East King County Youth Traffic Court webpage).

Be sure to complete both pages of this form, print a copy, sign it and return it via email to the King County District Court Redmond Courthouse: redmond.kcdc@kingcounty.gov.

The East King County Youth Traffic Court empowers local youth to help resolve cases of traffic citations issued to their peers. It focuses on youth leadership development through restorative justice principles and a pro-active approach to community involvement.

Confidentiality Policy

As a volunteer, your acceptance as a student team member of the East King County Youth Traffic Court is determined by your adherence to the standards of confidentiality stated below. Therefore, you must understand and agree to the following conditions.

1. When you participate on the Youth Traffic Court team, you may have access to various traffic citations. These must never be copied or in any way removed from the office except as needed for handling cases.
2. As a volunteer, you agree not to discuss cases with anyone outside the Youth Traffic Court system, and you agree not to divulge any information which comes to your knowledge in the course of a Youth Traffic Court case.

I have read the above and hereby acknowledge that I understand that in all matters relating to court cases, my confidentiality is paramount. I understand that breaking confidentiality is unacceptable and will result in disqualification from participation in future cases.
