A premature appeal was filed in the above-referenced matter because the project type had been mischaracterized, and the Appellant had accordingly followed the wrong fee review process under Chapter 27.50 KCC. The proper process was later established and a fee waiver request filed. By Hearing Examiner order issued October 8, 2010, any appeal from DDES's September 30, 2010, decision on the fee waiver request was required to have been filed by October 21, 2010.

Evidently, no such appeal has been timely filed. (DDES has failed to respond to two Examiner inquiries of any filing, and based on lack of any appeal being forwarded to this office a reasonable presumption is that no such appeal was filed.)

Accordingly, the premature appeal is DISMISSED and Hearing Examiner jurisdiction over the case is terminated.

ORDERED February 28, 2011.

Peter T. Donahue
King County Hearing Examiner

NOTICE OF RIGHT TO APPEAL
