

Eastrail Partners

Regional Advisory Council

Katherine Hollis and Taldi Harrison

January 31, 2020

The Eastrail Partnership

- 1. Executive Director Introduction
- 2. Ongoing Efforts
- 3. EP Board of Directors and Looking Ahead
- 4. Questions

Meet Katherine Hollis

Virginia Creeper Trail, a rail-to-trail project in Southern VA, 1997

The Eastrail Partnership

On Going Efforts

Finalize service agreement with RAC members

Current Priorities:

- Full board of directors
- Building relationships – RAC, other stakeholders and future stakeholders
- Develop and implement financial and operational plans
- Draft organizational mission and vision
- Identify opportunities for sponsorships and partnerships

The Eastrail Partnership

Making EP'S Board Even Stronger

- IDENTIFYING and RECRUITING final members
 - Current membership = 17, target membership = 20-22
 - Three new board members added in December: Joan McBride, Sung Yang, John Marchione
- EVALUATED current board composition and identified gaps to fill
 - Demographic: more people of color
 - Geographic: more representation from Renton, Redmond, and Woodinville
 - Expertise: diversity, equity, and inclusion; financial management

Questions?

Graphic Credits:

- The Eastrail Partners – King County Parks Division
- “Discussion” – Hans Gerhard Meier from Noun Project
- “Startup” – Gregor Cresnar from Noun Project
- “Next” – Roselin Christina.S from Noun Project

The Eastrail Partnership

