

EXECUTIVE RECOMMENDED PLAN

Policy I-207 Analysis of Proposed Amendments to Comprehensive Plan

OVERVIEW

King County Comprehensive Plan policy I-207 requires an analysis of proposed changes to the Comprehensive Plan – this includes new policies, amendments to policies, and deletion of policies. Other substantive changes, such as major rewrites to text or major amendments to workplan items, are also analyzed. Policy I-207 reads as follows:

- I-207 Proposed amendments to the King County Comprehensive Plan, including the Land Use Map, shall be considered by the King County Council only once each calendar year in accordance with the State Growth Management Act and so that the cumulative effect of the proposals can be determined. All proposed Comprehensive Plan amendments should include the following analysis:
- a. Rationale: a detailed statement of what is proposed to be changed and why;
  - b. Effect: a statement detailing the anticipated outcome of the change on the: geographic area affected, populations affected, and environment;
  - c. Compliance: a statement confirming compliance with the:
    - 1. Growth Management Act, including statutory references where applicable;
    - 2. Countywide Planning Policies, including policy references where applicable;
    - 3. King County Strategic Plan, including policy, objective or strategy references where applicable;
    - and
  - d. Public Review: an indication that the proposed policy amendment was included in the executive's public review draft or a statement of the public review process used to solicit comments on the proposal.

This requirement is further codified in the King County Code and at 20.18.030.D, which states:

....The executive's recommendations for changes to policies, text and maps shall include the elements listed in Comprehensive Plan policy I-207 and analysis of their financial costs and public benefits, any of which may be included in environmental review documents....

The provisions of the Code expand the analysis to address the financial costs and public benefits. Given the high-level and long-term nature of the Comprehensive Plan policies, as well as the more detailed analysis conducted when policies are implemented through projects, programs or other enactments, the level of analysis is general. This analysis is shown in the "B. Effect" column of the subsequent table. Shown below and on the following pages is an analysis of the proposed changes to policies and other substantive amendments in the 2020 Executive Recommended Plan. Changes are listed by components of the plan. Changes to text typically include a page number for reference, and changes to policy typically show the policy number for reference. Note that the discussion of rationale and effect are complementary and should be read together as, combined, they best explain the amendments. Note that the exact formatting of the text in the table below is simplified for readability; the exact formatting is found in Attachment A to Proposed Ordinance 2019-XXXX, which shows the amendments to the Comprehensive Plan.

In Chapter 1 Regional Growth Management Planning, on page 1-8, amend as follows: Community Service Area Land Use Subarea plans, as well as other community plans and basin plans, focus the policy direction of the Comprehensive Plan to a smaller geographic area (See Chapter 11 Community Service Area Subarea Planning, for information on large-scale subarea land use plans for rural and urban unincorporated areas in King County). Smaller-scale studies, known as area zoning and land use studies, per King County Code,<sup>3</sup> are focused on adoption or amendment of land use and zoning maps on an area wide basis rather than the broad range of topics that are addressed in a full subarea plan. Examples of subarea plans and area zoning studies include the Duwamish Coalition Project, White Center Action Plan, Fall City Subarea Plan, the East Redmond Subarea Plan, and planning efforts within a watershed or basin. Development of subarea plans are guided by the following policy as well as other	See Subarea Plan Focus on land use.	Same.	Same.	Same.

applicable policies of the Comprehensive Plan and provisions in the King County Code. <sup>4</sup>
In Chapter 1 Regional Growth Management Planning, on page 1-11, amend as follows: The Growth Management Act allows local comprehensive plan amendments to be considered once each year. In King County, those annual amendments allow limited changes only, except for once every eight years. Then, during the ("Eight-Year Cycle review process,") eight-year update substantive changes to policies and amendments to the Urban Growth Area boundary can be proposed and adopted. A smaller-range of substantive changes to policies and amendments to the Urban Growth Area boundary may also be considered at the midpoint of the eight-year update cycle, but only if authorized by motion. These provisions are detailed in King County Code Title 20.18. Additional information and policies are found in Chapter 12, Implementation, Amendments and Evaluation.	See Standardizes plan update terminology.	Same.	Same.	Same.

In Chapter 1 Regional Growth Management Planning, on page 1-11, amend as follows: Docket Request Process: Another key element of the Comprehensive Plan review and ((amendment)) update process is the Docket Request Process. As required by the Growth Management Act, King County maintains a docket for recording comments on the King County Comprehensive Plan and associated development regulations. The process and requirements are detailed in the King County Code at 20.18.140. The County reviews all requests, communicates with docket submitters, and makes recommendations to the County Council by the first day of December. The docket report includes an executive recommendation for each item.	See Standardizes plan update terminology.	Same.	Same.	Same.
In Chapter 1 Regional Growth Management Planning, on page 1-22, amend as follows: Chapter 4: Housing and Human Services The availability of adequate and affordable housing has become one of the most pressing issues facing King County today. Similarly, partnering with other organizations and jurisdictions to deliver human services is a critical component for creating sustainable communities and supporting environmental justice. In the 2016 Comprehensive Plan update, policies on these topics are consolidated into a new chapter.	See Standardizes plan update terminology.	Same.	Same.	Same.

In Chapter 1 Regional Growth Management Planning, starting on page 1-24, amend as follows: Chapter 11: Community Service Area Subarea Planning This chapter uses King County's seven Community Service Areas as the framework for its renewed land use subarea planning program that offers long-range planning services to unincorporated communities. The majority of King County's community plans are no longer in effect as separately adopted plans.<sup>7</sup> In many cases, however, the plans contain valuable historical information about King County's communities and often provide background for the land uses in effect today. Policies from the community plans were retained as part of the Comprehensive Plan to recognize the unique characteristics of each community and to provide historical context. This chapter will be updated, where appropriate, to reflect the new Community Service Area subarea plans as they are adopted.	See Subarea Plan Focus on land use.	Same.	Same.	Same.
Chapter 12: Implementation, Amendments and Evaluation The Comprehensive Plan policies, development regulations and Countywide Planning Policy framework have been adopted to achieve the growth management objectives of King County and the region. This chapter describes the county's process for amending the Comprehensive Plan and outlines and distinguishes the annual ((cycle)), midpoint ((cycle)), and ((the)) eight-year ((cycle amendments)) updates. series of major Workplan actions that will be undertaken between the ((major update cycles)) four-year midpoint and eight-year updates to implement or refine provisions within the Plan. This chapter further explains the relationship between planning and zoning.
Chapter 2 Urban Communities
In Chapter 2 Urban Communities, on page 2-19, amend as follows: U-143 Common facilities such as recreation space, internal walkways that provide convenient and safe inter- and intra-connectivity, roads, parking (including secure bicycle parking), and solid waste and recycling areas with appropriate levels of landscaping should be included in multifamily developments. ((Common facilities should)) Areas of multifamily buildings that are open to the public (such as common hallways and elevators) shall be smoke-free and vapor-product free to the extent allowed by state and local regulations to avoid exposure to ((environmental)) secondhand tobacco smoke and aerosol emissions from electronic vapor and smoking device products.	Reflects State and Federal Decisions Related to Vapor Products, and intent to regulate to the extent allowed.	Establishes County intent to regulate vapor products, consistent with State law and Seattle-King County Board of Health guidelines.	Edit for consistency with state law.	Yes, in PRD. Edits from PRD to clarify which arears in multifamily buildings are subject to regulations.

Through the adoption of the 2000 King County Comprehensive Plan ((2000 Update)) update, King County reaffirmed its urban designation of the Bear Creek Urban Planned Development area. In addition to the reasons that led the county (and the region) to originally include this area within the county's Urban Growth Area, when the county adopted the 2000 update, it noted that: two sites within this area had been approved for urban development after the adoption of the original Growth Management Act Comprehensive Plan; significant infrastructure improvements had been made at these sites; and the ultimate development of these sites was proceeding in accordance with issued permit approvals. The existence of these urban improvements further supported a conclusion that this area is characterized by urban growth within the meaning of the Growth Management Act and was therefore appropriately included within the county's Urban Growth Area.
In Chapter 2 Urban Communities, starting on page 2-32, amend as follows: While urban separators complement the regional open space system by helping to define urban communities, the King County Four-to-One Program provides an opportunity to add land to the regional open space system through the dedication of permanent open space. U-185 Through the Four-to-One Program, King County ((shall actively pursue)) may support dedication of open space along the original Urban Growth Area line adopted in the 1994 King County Comprehensive Plan. Through this program, one acre of Rural Area zoned land may be added to the Urban Growth Area for residential development in exchange for a dedication to King County of four acres of permanent open space. Land added to the Urban Growth Area for drainage facilities that are designed as mitigation to have a natural looking visual appearance in support of its development, does not require dedication of permanent open space. The total area added to the Urban Growth Area as a result of this policy shall not exceed 4,000 acres.	Implements recommendations from Review of the Four-to-One Program. * Clarifies the discretionary nature of the program. * Clarifies that new urban development only allows residential. * Moves overall program acreage maximum from fifth policy to first policy.	Amendments do not change underlying intent.	Program found to be consistent with state law.	Yes, in PRD.

U-186 King County shall evaluate Four-to-One proposals for both quality of open space and feasibility of urban development. The highest-quality proposals ((shall)) may be recommended for adoption as amendments to the Urban Growth Area. Lands preserved as open space shall primarily be on the site, shall buffer the adjacent Rural Area or Natural Resource Lands from the new urban development, ((retain their Rural Area designations)) and should generally be configured in such a way as to connect with open space on adjacent properties.	Implements recommendations from Review of the Four-to-One Program. * Clarifies the discretionary nature of the program. * Directs that the open space primarily be on the site; this addresses the lack of guidance on this in the existing program. The term "primarily" describes intent while still allowing flexibility in this voluntary and discretionary program. * Relocates discussion of future use designation to a later policy.	Criteria changes do not change underlying intent, and will help to better meet the goal to buffer the new urban development.	Program found to be consistent with state law.	Yes, in PRD. Minor grammatical edits from PRD.
U-187 King County shall use the following criteria for evaluating open space in Four-to-One proposals: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Quality of fish and wildlife habitat areas;</li> <li>b. Connections to regional open space systems;</li> <li>c. Protection of wetlands, stream corridors, ground water and water bodies;</li> <li>d. Unique natural, biological, cultural, historical, or archeological features;</li> </ul>	Implements recommendations from Review of the Four-to-One Program. * Establishes two new evaluation criteria, based on County experiences with past projects.	Criteria changes do not change underlying intent. Will help to ensure the open space is of benefit to the public.	Program found to be consistent with state law.	Yes, in PRD.

King County has a role to play in promoting cooperation and public/private partnerships to address the full range of critical housing needs in King County and the Puget Sound region. King County convened the Regional Affordable Housing Task Force in July 2017. The task force met for 18 months to understand the affordable housing challenges and to meet people most affected by the lack of affordable units in the county. The task force work culminated in a Five-Year Action Plan and Final Report. The overarching goal of the Five-Year Action Plan is to "strive to eliminate cost burden for households earning 80 percent Area Median Income and below, with a priority for serving households at or below 50 percent Area Median Income." The Action Plan contains seven goals to accomplish the overall goal: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Create and support an ongoing structure for regional collaboration;</li> <li>2. Increase construction and preservation of affordable homes for households earning less than 50 percent area median income;</li> <li>3. Prioritize affordability accessible within a half-mile walkshed of existing and planned frequent transit service, with a particular priority for high-capacity transit stations;</li> </ol>	Regional Affordable Housing Plan.	of the Regional Affordable Housing work, and lists the goals that are intended to guide future decision-making.	housing is a requirement under state law.

The Puget Sound Partnership also serves as an umbrella group for salmon recovery efforts in Puget Sound, including implementation of salmon recovery plans prepared for Chinook salmon. King County, through its land use decisions, management of stormwater and wastewater discharges, development of recycled water supplies, cooperative habitat protection and restoration projects, work in flood risk reduction, salmon recovery, support for agricultural and natural land protection, actions to address climate change and ongoing environmental monitoring, is actively involved in the conservation and recovery of Puget Sound. King County has the opportunity, and responsibility, to make significant contributions to protecting and restoring Puget Sound. The Marine Division, which is a part of the Metro Transit Department, provides service from downtown Seattle to West Seattle and Vashon-Maury Island. The Marine Division is guided by the King County Ferry District 2014 Strategic Plan, which was developed while under the King County Ferry District's governance. The plan expresses the vision and goals for passenger-only ferry service in King County for the next three to five years. The strategies are the broad initiatives to pursue the vision and goals, with specific actions listed under each strategy. The plan's vision is to be a leader in regional mobility benefiting the community and economic development needs of King County through providing water taxi service that is safe, reliable, and a great customer experience while being responsive and accountable to the public. The goals are to: 1) provide reliable and safe service; 2) deliver financially sustainable water taxi service; and 3) to integrate water taxi service with the broader regional transportation system and economy. The strategies to achieve these goals include: 1) build on strengths and grow ridership; 2) achieve financial stability; 3) coordinate with regional planning and emergency management efforts; and 4) explore growth and partnership opportunities.

In Chapter 8 Transportation, starting on page 8-7, amend as follows: The Strategic Plan for Road Services defines the vision and mission for the King County Department of ((Transportation's Road)) Local Services – Road Services Division. The Strategic Plan for Road Services provides detailed direction for the response to the many complex challenges, including two trends that have had significant impacts on the county's road services. One is that annexations, consistent with the goals of the Growth Management Act, have reduced the urban unincorporated area and therefore the tax base that supports the unincorporated road system has shrunk significantly. By 2023, when the next major Comprehensive Plan update is completed, Road Services Division's responsibilities will likely focus almost entirely on the Rural Area and Natural Resource Lands. A second trend is the decline in County road funding, described in greater detail in Section IV. The Strategic Plan for Road Services guides the Road Services Division as it is faced with the consequences of a smaller service area and reduced funding and seeks to manage the unincorporated King County road system through focused investment of available resources to facilitate the movement of people, goods and services, and respond to emergencies.	See Updates to dates, data, maps and references.	Same.	Same.	Same.

Executive Proposed Policy Amendment	Rationale	Effect	Compliance	Review
In recognition of this growth, in 2019, King County studied the impacts from fossil fuels and fossil fuel facilities in order to identify, avoid, and mitigate the potential range of impacts to public health and safety, air and water quality, habitats, natural resource lands, and other resources and functions. King County studied definitions, use classifications, policies, development regulations, zoning tools, and review procedures used by other local and state governments, to regulate fossil fuel facilities. Based on this review, fossil fuel facilities, as defined further in the King County Code, are commercial facilities used primarily to receive, store, transfer, wholesale trade, or transport fossil fuels. They do not include individual storage facilities of up to 30,000 gallons and total cumulative facilities per site of 60,000 gallons for the purposes of retail or direct to consumer sales, facilities or activities for local consumption; non-commercial facilities; and uses preempted by federal rule or law. Through this review and study, the County recognized that new or expanded fossil fuel facilities may create significant public health risks, including air pollution causing impaired respiratory functions from fine particulates, noise pollution affecting hearing loss and psychological health, exposure to heavy metals, and contamination of drinking water sources. These risks may result in cancer, premature death and lung and heart diseases. In

addition, given that the siting of these facilities are often in lower-income areas, the impacts can demographically disproportionate. The County also identified that fossil fuel facilities may pose a threat to King County's ecology through extensive land disturbing activities that cause adverse impacts to natural ecosystems, contamination of surface water and groundwater, risks from impacts in areas with seismic and geological instability, and destruction of critical habitat for wildlife. The study observed that new and expanded major fossil fuel facilities may create congestion at vehicle/train crossings, increase noise levels through additional vehicle trips, and generate dust, debris, and odor. The study also noted that on numerous occasions across the United States and Canada, spills of crude oil from train derailments and tanker ships and natural gas pipeline explosions have caused numerous fatalities and illnesses, substantial loss of property, and significant environmental damage. Fossil fuel mining, infrastructure, associated transport, and end use as a fuel are a significant source of carbon dioxide, heavy metals, nitrogen oxide, and sulfur dioxide; these contribute to climate change and environmental pollution. International Panel on Climate Change, the combustion of fossil fuels is by far the largest human source of global greenhouse gas emissions, and it recognizes that most fossil fuel reserves will need to be left in the ground if global warming is to be kept to levels that avoid the most dangerous climate change impacts. Additionally, studies from the State of Washington, the University of Washington's Climate Impacts Group, and others find that the State of Washington and King County are threatened by impacts resulting from climate change, including warming temperatures, sea level rise on coastal communities, diminishing snowpack and water availability, ocean acidification, and forest decline, as well as public safety and public health impacts resulting from climate change. Local regulations can address these impacts by ensuring comprehensive environmental review and permitting requirements, particularly for end-point facilities such as terminals, storage facilities, and refining and handling facilities. Federal and State statutes also regulate components of the fossil fuel system, such as the location, construction, and operational conditions for pipelines and railroad lines.

In Chapter 12 Implementation, Amendments and Evaluation, starting on page 12-11, amend as follows: A new feature of the 2016 Comprehensive Plan is this Workplan section. While Workplan tasks have accompanied the Comprehensive Plan as part of the adoption process by the County Council, these tasks were historically included with the Ordinance rather than inside of the Comprehensive Plan. In the 2016 Comprehensive Plan, these tasks will be included in the body of the document. Workplan tasks work in conjunction with the other tools discussed in this chapter, such as regulations, incentive programs, and other core regional planning and implementation activities. Each Workplan item includes a summary description, general timeline and anticipated outcomes. In the 2018 update to the 2016 King County Comprehensive Plan, as part of the restructure adopted in Ordinance 18810 (Proposed Ordinance 2018-0153) and Motion 15142, the County modified the structure of the King County Comprehensive Plan process ((review cycle,)) to include a comprehensive update every eight years, as well as potential annual and midpoint updates. To support these implementation of these policies, and consistent with direction in the 2015 Strategic Climate Action Plan, the County will soon be in the process of reviewing potential green building code requirements and/or encouraged standards for private development for possible adoption. In the meantime, the County intends to continue to use the Department of Local Services - Permitting Division ((Permitting and Environmental Review)) existing “Green Building Handbook” to help encourage private green building development, which is referenced in the 2016 Comprehensive Plan. Action 12: Update Plat Ingress/Egress Requirements. State law gives King County the responsibility to adopt regulations and procedures for approval of subdivisions and plats. The Department of Local Services - Permitting Division (Permitting and Environmental Review) reviews ingress and egress to subdivisions and plats during the preliminary subdivision approval process using the Department of (Transportation) Local Services - Road Services Division's "King County Road Design and Construction Standards – 2007" (Roads Standards). In recent years, subdivision layouts have included one entry/exit (or ingress/egress) point and a looped road network within the subdivision. Utilizing one entry/exit point can cause access issues if the roadway were to be physically impeded (such as due to: a fire, debris, flooding, ice, snow, etc.). This configuration may also cause traffic backups while waiting for the ability to turn in to or out of the development. Sometimes, this one access point may also be located too close to other intersecting roadways to the roadway that the development intersects; this can contribute to traffic back-ups. This Workplan item directs the Executive to transmit legislation to update the code, (such as K.C.C. Title 21A), and the King County Department of (Transportation) Local Services - Road Services Division's Road Standards to address these access	See Updates to dates, data, maps and references. This system will be implemented through amendments to the King County Comprehensive Plan and development regulations. The County will engage in a Water Availability and Permitting Study to address these and related issues. This study will analyze methods to accommodate current zoning given possible water availability issues and will look at innovative ways to accommodate future development in any areas with insufficient water by using mitigation measures (e.g. water banks). Action 16: Streamlining the Comprehensive Plan. Public participation, as expressed in Policy RP-103, is to be actively sought out throughout the development, amendment, and implementation of the Comprehensive Plan. The Plan, and various iterations before final adoption, are posted online in order to be accessible to the public, and active outreach efforts during plan updates seek to reach a wide range of County residents. However, such a lengthy document with many complex regulatory requirements can be difficult to navigate and understand. To make the Comprehensive Plan and relevant sections in King County Code Title 20 more reader-friendly and accessible to a wider audience, redundancies and excess detail should be minimized. This workplan item will initiate the process of streamlining the 2016 Comprehensive Plan and portions of King County Code Title 20 over the next several years, with the goal of becoming shorter, easier to understand,	See Standardize plan update terminology. See Updates to dates, data, maps and references.	Same. Same.	Same. Same.	Same. Same.
