II. FINDINGS

The Court FINDS:

2.1  The petition should be dismissed because:

- The petition is capricious.
- The parent(s) filed an ARY petition cause # _____.
- Other _____.

2.2  The petition should be approved because a preponderance of the evidence has established that:

- the child is beyond the control of his/her parent such that the child's behavior endangers the health, safety, or welfare of the child or other person.
- the child has been reported to law enforcement as absent without consent for at least 24 consecutive hours from the parent's home, a crisis residential center, and out-of-home placement, or a court ordered placement on two or more separate occasions; and

- has exhibited a serious substance abuse problem; or
  - has exhibited behaviors that create a risk of serious harm to the health, safety, or welfare of the child or any other person, or
  - the child is in need of necessary services (including food, shelter, health care, clothing, educational, services designed to maintain or reunite the family); the child lacks access to, or has declined to utilize these services; and the child's parents have evidenced continuing but unsuccessful efforts to maintain the family structure or are unable or unwilling to continue efforts to maintain the family structure.
- the petitioner, if the child, has made a reasonable effort to resolve the conflict.
  - the conflict which exists cannot be resolved by delivery of services to the family during continued placement of the child in the parental home.
  - reasonable efforts have been made to prevent or eliminate the need for removal of the child from the child's home and to make it possible for the child to return home.
  - a suitable out-of-home placement resource is available.
  - the parent requested or concurs with, and is able to contribute to the support of the child.
  - the Court finds that the parents are opposed to placement and have continuously sought reconciliation with the child.
  - the parties  have  have not provided all of the evidence required by LR 94.04 regarding the parent's income and expenses and/or proposed support worksheets in accordance with LR 94.04.
  - Other:

2.3 The basis for the child's out of home placement is:

- The parent has requested and approves the placement, or
- The court finds by clear, cogent, and convincing evidence that:
  - placement is in the family's best interest;
    - the parents have not requested an out-of-home placement,
    - the parents have not exercised any other right listed in RCW 13.32A.160(1)(e)
    - the child has made reasonable efforts to resolve the conflict
    - the conflict cannot be resolved during continued placement of the child in the parental home;
    - reasonable efforts have been made to prevent or eliminate the need for removal of the child from the child's home and to make it possible for the child to return home; and
    - a suitable out-of-home placement resource is available.
- b.  the order is in the child's best interest and the parents are unavailable; or
- c.  the parent's actions cause an imminent threat to the child's health or safety.
