

How to

Ask for a Divorce

For spouses/registered domestic partners who agree

Use this packet only if:

- You and your spouse or registered domestic partner agree on the terms of your divorce, and
- Your spouse or registered domestic partner will sign the court papers to show that s/he agrees.

WARNINGS!

- If one of you is pregnant, or a child was born before the divorce, the other spouse is considered the legal parent. If you do not think the other spouse/registered domestic partner is the parent, you may need to file a parentage case before you finalize the divorce. If you are in this situation, talk to a lawyer.
- Due to COVID-19, all hearings are being done by phone or video and most offices are only providing remote services. You should consult the King County Superior Court webpage for the most up to date information. <https://www.kingcounty.gov/courts/superior-court.aspx>.

Talk to a lawyer, if you can

These instructions have been developed by the King County Superior Court Family Law Information Center. They are not intended to be a substitute for legal advice. They provide only legal information. It's a good idea to talk to a lawyer before you file any forms.

If you cannot afford a lawyer, you can:

- You can obtain a list of low-cost and free legal resources. <https://kingcounty.gov/~media/courts/superior-court/docs/family/facilitator/family-law-resources.ashx?la=en>
- Get help from the Family Law Facilitators office. You can get information about their services at <https://kingcounty.gov/courts/superior-court/family/facilitator.aspx>.

If the Joinder “waives notice,” you are not required to serve the other party.

Step 7: Complete your final documents to finalize your divorce

Completely fill out and sign these forms. As a self-represented party, you are responsible for filling out all final documents as you want the Court to sign them.

General Tips:

- 1) 231 Findings and Conclusions and 241 Final Divorce Order are twin documents. Any information in 231 must be repeated or referenced in 241.
- 2) The other party must sign the final documents if they “Demanded Notice” on the Joinder or if they are the Petitioner.
- 3) If the other party “waived notice,” they do not need notice of the final documents or to sign the final documents AS LONG AS the final documents contain the same information as the Petition for Dissolution.
