

How to Respond to a Petition for a Parenting Plan (and Child Support if needed)

Talk to a lawyer, if you can

These instructions have been developed by the King County Superior Court Family Law Information Center. They are not intended to be a substitute for legal advice. They provide only legal information. It's a good idea to talk to a lawyer before you file any forms. If you cannot afford a lawyer, you can:

- Find a lawyer to help you with the most difficult parts of your case, such as reviewing your forms, explaining how to get ready for court and confirming this is the best legal action for your case. You can contact the King County Bar Association to ask for a referral.
- Ask the Family Law Facilitator's office for a list of low-cost and free legal resources.

Step 1: Determine your response deadline

20 days	If you were served in person in Washington state.
60 days	If you were served in person outside of Washington state or by publication.
90 days	If you were served by mail.

Note: If you agree with everything the other party has requested in the petition, you may fill out the Agreement to Join Petition (Joinder) (FL All Family 119) form.

Step 2: Fill out these forms, then make copies

All of these forms can be downloaded at: www.courts.wa.gov/forms/

Form Name	Form Number	Notes	Completed

Parenting Plan	FL All Family 140		<input type="checkbox"/>
Information for Temporary Parenting Plan	FL All Family 139		<input type="checkbox"/>

How many copies do I need?

- Original set to file with Clerk's office.
- Copy 1 is to serve the other party
- Copy 2 you will keep for your records

Fill out these forms after the other parent is served (see Step 5), make a copy and file them.

---	-------------------	------------	--------------------------

Step 3: Take your original forms to the Clerk's Office and file

File with the Clerk's office (2C in Kent, E-609 in Seattle) the originals of all papers from Step 2 except the Proof of Mailing or Hand Delivery.

Step 4: Have the other party served

You may deliver or mail the documents yourself (provided that no order restrains you from having contact). If the other party has an attorney, deliver or mail the forms to the attorney instead. After you have delivered the forms to the other party or attorney, fill out the Proof of Mailing or Hand Delivery form. File the original with the Clerk's Office and keep a copy for your records.

You may also have someone else serve the other party or his/her attorney for you. The server must be over 18. After serving, the server fills out a Proof of Mailing or Hand Delivery form and returns it to you. File the original with the Clerk's Office and keep a copy for your records.

You have now responded to the Petition and must take the following additional steps.

Step 5: Go to the parenting seminar

Both parents must go to a parenting class called What About the Children. You must complete the class by the deadline listed on your Case Schedule in order to avoid the late fee for registration after your deadline.

Go to the Family Law Facilitator's Office for information or to register (W-382 in Seattle and 3D in Kent).

Step 6: Follow your Case Schedule

If you do not have a copy of your case schedule, you may get it from the Clerk's office. The case schedule contains deadlines each party must follow. Some of these deadlines include:

- Status Conference: If the Confirmation of Issues is not signed by both parties and filed, or if your case is otherwise not on track with your Case Schedule, you are required to attend your Status Conference. See your case schedule for your Status Conference date.
- Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR): Also called mediation or settlement conference, parties must try to reach an agreement with the help of a professional, such as an attorney or social worker, prior to trial. The Legal Resource List available in the Facilitator's office contains information on programs that offer ADR.

If you and the other party do come to an agreement: You can finalize your case by presenting agreed final orders (Step 7) in the Ex Parte courtroom. You must file an Ex Parte Notice of Court Date (Commissioners) form, for either (Kent) or (Seattle), to schedule your final hearing. Choose a hearing date that is at least 14 days from when you file the Ex Parte Notice of Court Date (Commissioners) form with the Clerk's office. You may have to pay a document review fee at your final hearing.

If you and the other party cannot agree: Your case must be resolved at trial. See your case schedule for your trial date.

While you are waiting for trial, if you would like to have temporary orders (such as temporary parenting plan, child support, or temporary restraining orders), please ask the facilitators for information on filing for temporary orders.
