

How to Notify the Other Parent You Want to Move with the Children

Use these instructions if the children reside with you most of the time, and you need to notify the other parent of your wish to move out of the school district with the children.

You are not required to notify the other parent of your move if there is not a court order establishing visitation.

Do not use these instructions if you intend to move within the same school district. Speak to a facilitator instead.

Talk to a lawyer, if you can

These instructions have been developed by the King County Superior Court Family Law Information Center. They are not intended to be a substitute for legal advice. They provide only legal information. It's a good idea to talk to a lawyer before you file any forms. If you cannot afford a lawyer, you can:

If you cannot afford a lawyer, you can:

- You can obtain a list of low-cost and free legal resources.
<https://kingcounty.gov/~media/courts/superior-court/docs/family/facilitator/family-law-resources.ashx?la=en>
- Get help from the Family Law Facilitators office. You can get information about their services at <https://kingcounty.gov/courts/superior-court/family/facilitator.aspx>.

Step 1: Fill out these forms

These forms can be downloaded at www.courts.wa.gov/forms.

Form Name	Form Number	Notes	Completed
Notice of Intent to Move with Children (Relocation)	FL Relocate 701		<input type="checkbox"/>

If you are requesting to change anything in your Parenting Plan or Residential Schedule, you will also need to complete:

Parenting Plan	FL All Family 140		<input type="checkbox"/>
--------------------------------	-------------------	--	--------------------------

Choose one of the following:

Proof of Personal Service	FL All Family 101	See Step 4.	<input type="checkbox"/>
Proof of Service by Mail	FL All Family 107	See Step 4.	<input type="checkbox"/>

Step 2: Ask to limit the information you put in the Notice of Intent to Move if you have safety concerns

If giving your home address, or information about the school, in the Notice of Intent to Move with Children will put your safety or that of your children at risk, you can ask the court for permission to keep this information confidential.

Fill out these forms, which can be downloaded at www.courts.wa.gov/forms.

Form Name	Form Number	Notes	Completed
Motion to Limit Notice of Intent to Move with Children (Ex Parte)	FL Relocate 702	Explain why you are concerned for your safety or your children's safety.	<input type="checkbox"/>
Order on Motion to Limit Notice of Intent to Move with Children	FL Relocate 703		<input type="checkbox"/>

Follow the process outlined here to have your request reviewed via Ex Parte: <https://www.kingcounty.gov/~media/courts/superior-court/docs/ex-parte-probate/KCSC-ExParte-Process-for-FL-Emergency-Motions.ashx?la=en>

If the court signs your Order on Motion to Limit Notice of Intent to Move with Children, follow the court order.

Step 3: Make copies and file with the Clerk's Office

How many copies do I need?

1. Original set of all the forms from Step 1 and 2 to file with the Clerk's Office.
2. Copy 1 is for your records.
3. Copy 2 is to serve the other party.

You can start (file), your case by either bringing your original forms to the Clerk's Office (room 2C in Kent and E-609 in Seattle),

OR

You can file your case online on the Clerk's website at:

<https://www.kingcounty.gov/courts/clerk/documents/efiling.aspx>. If you have questions about e-filing call 206-477-3000, or email eServices@kingcounty.gov.

Step 4: Have the Other Parent Served

What to Serve

All the forms from Step 1 and 2 need to be served to the other parent.

How to Serve

You must have someone else over the age of 18 personally serve (give the documents directly to) the other party or someone else to mail the documents via certified mail.

If the forms are personally served, the server fills out the Proof of Personal Service form and returns it to you. File the original with the Clerk's Office and keep a copy for your records.

If the forms are mailed via certified mail, the person who mailed the forms fills out the Proof of Service by Mail. File the original with the Clerk's Office and keep a copy for your records.

Deadlines for Service

The other parent must be served 60 days before you move, unless:

- You find out about the move less than 60 days before it must happen and you notify the other parent within 5 days of learning of the need to move.
- You are entering a domestic violence shelter. The other parent must be served within 21 days of entering the shelter.
- The move is necessary to protect your health or safety or that of the children. The other parent must be served within 21 days of entering the shelter.

Step 5: Wait for the Other Parent to file an Objection

The other parent has 30 days to file the Objection about Moving with Children form with the Clerk's Office.

**IMPORTANT!** If an Objection is filed, a trial date will be set and you will need to follow the deadlines in the Order Setting Domestic Case Schedule. You will also need to respond by the deadline. Ask a facilitator for instructions on how to file a Response to the Objection About Moving with Children.

If the other parent has NOT responded by the deadline or if the other parent agrees to the move you may finalize your case.

Please send your completed and signed final forms to facilitators@kingcounty.gov

When emailing the facilitators, please include:

1. SUBJECT LINE: King county Case Number (ex. 12-3-12345-7 SEA or KNT)
2. Attachments: WORD, PDF, or JPEG
3. Phone number or email address where you can be reached directly.

Complete and sign the proposed final forms listed below:

Form Name	Form Number	Notes	Completed
Ex Parte Motion for Final Order Changing Parenting Plan—No Objection to Moving with Children	FL Relocate 706		<input type="checkbox"/>
Ex Parte Order on Motion for Final Order Changing Parenting Plan—Moving with Children	FL Relocate 707		<input type="checkbox"/>
Parenting Plan	FL All Family 140	Copy of parenting plan that was served.	<input type="checkbox"/>

Once a Facilitator has reviewed your documents, they will provide corrections or an update. DO NOT call or email for an update unless it has been three weeks since you have heard a response.

You may also MAIL OR DROP OFF your completed and signed proposed final orders to either the Seattle or Kent offices. Please write ATTENTION: FACILITATORS and include a letter stating why you are dropping off documents to the Facilitators. For example, "Included in this packet are my final documents to finalize my family law case. My contact information is..." Any forms delivered without this information will be returned.

Attachment: Summary of the law about moving with children (Relocation Act, RCW 26.09.430 - .480)

If the custodian plans to move, s/he must notify every person who has court-ordered time with the children.

Move to a different school district

If the move is to a different school district, the custodian must complete the form Notice of Intent to Move with Children (FL Relocate 701) and deliver it at least 60 days before the intended move.

Exceptions:

- If the custodian could not reasonably have known enough information to complete the form in time to give 60 days' notice, the custodian must give notice within 5 days after learning the information.
- If the custodian is relocating to a domestic violence shelter or moving to avoid a clear, immediate and unreasonable risk to health or safety, notice may be delayed 21 days.
- If information is protected under a court order or the address confidentiality program, it may be withheld from the notice.
- A custodian who believes that giving notice would put her/himself or a child at unreasonable risk of harm, may ask the court for permission to leave things out of the notice or to be allowed to move without giving notice. Use form Motion to Limit Notice of Intent to Move with Children (Ex Parte) (FL Relocate 702).

The Notice of Intent to Move with Children can be delivered by having someone personally serve the other party or by any form of mail that requires a return receipt.

If the custodian wants to change the Parenting Plan because of the move, s/he must deliver a proposed Parenting Plan together with the Notice.

Move within the same school district

If the move is within the same school district, the custodian still has to let the other parent know. However, the notice does not have to be served personally or by mail with a return receipt. Notice to the other party can be made in any reasonable way. No specific form is required.

Warning! If you do not notify...

A custodian who does not give the required notice may be found in contempt of court. If that happens the court can impose sanctions. Sanctions can include requiring the custodian to bring the children back if the move has already happened, and ordering the custodian to pay the other side's costs and lawyer's fees.

Right to object

A person who has court-ordered time with the children can object to a move to a different school district and/or to the custodian's proposed Parenting Plan. If the move is within the same school district, the other party doesn't have the right to object to the move, but s/he may ask to change the Parenting Plan if there are adequate reasons under the modification law (RCW 26.09.260).

An objection is made by filing the Objection about Moving with Children and Petition about Changing a Parenting/Custody Order (Relocation) (form FL Relocate 721). File your Objection with the court and serve a copy on the custodian and anyone else who has court-ordered time with the children. Service of the Objection must be by personal service or by mailing a copy to each person by any form of mail that requires a return receipt. The Objection must be filed and served no later than 30 days after the Notice of Intent to Move with Children was received.

Right to move

During the 30 days after the Notice was served, the custodian may not move to a different school district with the children unless s/he has a court order allowing the move.

After the 30 days, if no Objection is filed, the custodian may move with the children without getting a court order allowing the move.

After the 30 days, if an Objection has been filed, the custodian may move with the children pending the final hearing on the Objection unless:

- The other party gets a court order saying the children cannot move, or

- The other party has scheduled a hearing to take place no more than 15 days after the date the
- Objection was served on the custodian. (However, the custodian may ask the court for an order allowing the move even though a hearing is pending if the custodian believes that s/he or a child is at unreasonable risk of harm.)

The court may make a different decision about the move at a final hearing on the Objection.

Parenting Plan after move

If the custodian served a proposed Parenting Plan with the Notice, and if no Objection is filed within 30 days after the Notice was served (or if the parties agree):

- Both parties may follow that proposed plan without being held in contempt of the Parenting Plan that was in place before the move. However, the proposed plan cannot be enforced by contempt unless it has been approved by a court.

- Either party may ask the court to approve the proposed plan. Use form Ex Parte Motion for Final Order Changing Parenting Plan – No Objection to Moving with Children (FL Relocate 706).

Forms

You can find forms about moving with children at:

- The Washington State Courts' website: www.courts.wa.gov/forms,
- The Administrative Office of the Courts – call: (360) 705-5328,
