

How to Respond to the Other Parent's Objection to Your Move with the Children

Use this packet ONLY if:

- You have been properly served with an Objection about Moving with Children, and
- You want to respond to the Objection.

After the Objection is filed, you are allowed to move with the children unless:

- the court approved an order preventing your move, or
- the other parent scheduled a hearing on a motion to prevent the move within 15 days of you being served with the Objection about Moving with Children.

Talk to a lawyer, if you can

These instructions have been developed by the King County Superior Court Family Law Information Center. They are not intended to be a substitute for legal advice. They provide only legal information. It's a good idea to talk to a lawyer before you file any forms. If you cannot afford a lawyer, you can:

If you cannot afford a lawyer, you can:

- You can obtain a list of low-cost and free legal resources.

- Get help from the Family Law Facilitators office. You can get information about their services at <https://kingcounty.gov/courts/superior-court/family/facilitator.aspx>.

Step 1: The deadline for your response depends on how you were served.

You have: 20 days to respond if you were personally served in Washington State.

You have: 20 days to respond, starting three days after the Objection was sent to you by certified mail.

You have: 60 days to respond if you were personally served outside Washington State.

If you miss your deadline, the other parent can get everything they asked for in the Objection about Moving with Children and Petition about Changing a Parenting/Custody Order.

Step 2: Fill out these forms.

All of these forms can be downloaded at: www.courts.wa.gov/forms/

How many copies do I need?

- Original set to file with Clerk's Office.
- Copy 1 is to serve the other parent.
- Copy 2 you will keep for your records.

Step 3: File the forms with the Clerk's Office.

You can file your forms by either bringing your original forms to the Clerk's Office (room 2C in Kent and E-609 in Seattle),

OR

You can file your case online on the Clerk's website at:

<https://www.kingcounty.gov/courts/clerk/documents/efiling.aspx>. If you have questions about e-filing call 206-477-3000, or email eServices@kingcounty.gov.

Step 4: Have the other party served.

What to Serve

All forms you filled out in Step 1 need to be served to the other parent.

How to Serve

You may deliver or mail the documents yourself (if there is not an order preventing you from having contact). If the other party has an attorney, deliver or mail the forms to the attorney instead.

After you have delivered the forms to the other party or attorney, fill out the Proof of Mailing or Hand Delivery form. File the original with the Clerk's Office and keep a copy for your records.

You may also have someone else serve the other party or his/her attorney for you. The server must be over 18. After serving, the server fills out the Proof of Mailing or Hand Delivery form and returns it to you. File the original with the Clerk's Office and keep a copy for your records.

Step 5: Follow your case schedule.

If you were not served with the Order Setting Case Schedule, you can get a copy from the Clerk's Office.

Your case may be referred to Family Court Services for mediation on the parenting plan.

Step 6: Finishing your case

There are two ways to finish the case:

Agreement

If you come to an agreement before trial, you can finish your case early. For more information, please visit: <https://kingcounty.gov/courts/superior-court/family/facilitator.aspx>.

Trial

If you and the other party cannot come to an agreement about your case you will have a trial before a Judge. Make sure that both your email and mailing address are up-to-date so that the court can contact you. Instructions on preparing for trial are available at:

<https://kingcounty.gov/courts/superior-court/family/family-law-instructions.aspx>

About 4 to 6 weeks before your trial you will get an order in the mail telling you to come to court for a Pre-Trial Conference. At that hearing, the Judge will give you an Order. The Order will tell you what forms you need to finish your case and when they are due.

Informal Family Law Trial (IFLT):

Requirements to select an IFLT. All parties must state whether they wish to proceed with an IFLT or a traditional trial. All parties must agree in order to proceed with an IFLT. Each party shall make its selection in writing using the Family Law Trial Selection Form. The Family Law Trial Selection form must be filed prior to the trial commencing. For cases in which there is a pretrial conference hearing, the selection shall be made at that hearing. If there is no pretrial conference hearing, the selection shall be made in the Joint Confirmation of Trial Readiness form. If a party does not file a selection using either form prior to the trial commencing, the case will proceed as a traditional trial. For more information on IFLT see LFLR 23
