

How to Dismiss a Family Law Case

If the parties agree or the respondent has not participated

Do not use these instructions if the respondent has signed or filed any document in the case, or appeared to any court hearing. You will need to schedule a court hearing in order to request that your case be dismissed. Please speak to a facilitator.

Warning! If the case is dismissed, any temporary orders filed under that case will no longer be in effect!

Talk to a lawyer, if you can

These instructions have been developed by the King County Superior Court Family Law Information Center. They are not intended to be a substitute for legal advice. They provide only legal information. It's a good idea to talk to a lawyer before you file any forms. If you cannot afford a lawyer, you can:

- Find a lawyer to help you with the most difficult parts of your case, such as reviewing your forms, explaining how to get ready for court and confirming this is the best legal action for your case. You can contact the King County Bar Association to ask for a referral.
- Ask the Family Law Facilitator's office for a list of low-cost and free legal resources.
