

Judge Moore was elected to serve on the King County Superior Court bench in November 2016. Prior to attending law school in upstate New York, Judge Moore served as a Peace Corps volunteer in Morocco. She began her legal career as a public defender with the Brooklyn Legal Aid Society and later moved to Seattle where she practiced public defense and family law.

Judge Moore previously served on the Washington State Bar Association Board of Governors and chaired the Seattle Human Rights Commission. She currently serves as Co-chair of the Courts and Community Committee and serves on the SCJA Public Education and Family/Juvenile Law Committees.
