If you are out of custody, you must register within 3 business days of being sentenced.

If you are in custody, you must register within 3 business days from the time of your release. At the time of your release and at the time of any transfer to partial confinement you also are required to register with an official designated by the agency that has jurisdiction over you. You must register with the sheriff of the county where you reside within 3 business days of the end of partial confinement.

If you change your residence within a county, you must provide, by certified mail, with return receipt requested, or in person, signed written notice of your change of residence to the county sheriff within 3 business days of moving.

If you change your residence to a new county within this state, you must register with the sheriff of the county of your new residence within 3 business days of moving. In addition, within 3 business days of moving you must provide, by certified mail, with return receipt requested, or in person, signed written notice of your change of address to the sheriff of the county where you last registered.

If you plan to attend or work at a public or private school or institution of higher education in Washington, you are required to notify the sheriff of the county where you reside within 3 business days prior to arriving at the school to work or attend classes. You also must notify the sheriff after that attendance or work ends.

If you lack a fixed residence, you are required to register as homeless within 3 business days after ceasing to have a fixed residence. You must also report in person to the sheriff of the county where you registered on a weekly basis. You must keep an accurate accounting of where you stay during the week and provide it to the county sheriff upon request. If you are under DOC supervision and lack a fixed residence, you must register in the county where you are being supervised. If you enter a different county and stay there for more than 24 hours, you will be required to register in the new county within 3 business days.

If you leave the state following your sentencing or release from custody but later move back to Washington, you must register within 3 business days after returning to this state.

If you move to a new state, you must register with the new state within 3 business days after establishing residence. You must also send written notice, within 3 business days of moving to the new state, to the county sheriff with whom you last registered in Washington State.

If you work, carry on a vocation or attend school in another state, you must register with the new state within 3 business days after beginning work or school, or carrying on that vocation.

If you are not a resident of Washington, but attend school, are employed, or carry on a vocation in the State of Washington, you must register with the county sheriff for the county where your school, place of employment, or vocation is located. If you visit Washington and intend to be present for 10 days or more, within 3 business days of your arrival you must register with the county sheriff of each county where you will be staying.

If you apply to change your name, you must submit a copy of that application to the sheriff of the county where you reside and to the Washington State Patrol at least 5 days before the entry of the order granting the name change. You must submit a copy of any order changing your name to the sheriff of the county where you reside and to the Washington State Patrol within 3 business days of the entry of that order.

If you intend to travel outside the United States, you must provide, by certified mail, with return receipt requested, or in person, signed written notice of the details of your travel plan (purpose and means of travel, destination, itinerary details, passport number and country) to the sheriff of each county where you are registered, at least 21 days before you travel. If you cancel or postpone that travel, you must notify the sheriff(s) within 3 days of canceling or postponing, or on the departure date you provided in your notice, whichever is earlier. If you travel routinely across international borders for work, or must travel unexpectedly due to a family or work emergency, you must notify the sheriff(s) in person, at least 24 hours before you travel; you must explain to the sheriff(s) in writing why it is impracticable for you to comply with the notice required by RCW 9A.44.130(3).

Your duty to register does not end until you have obtained a court order specifically relieving you of the duty to register or you have been informed in writing by the sheriff's office that your duty to register has ended. Your duty to register DOES NOT end when your DOC supervision ends.
