

King County FYSPRT/FYC Meeting Notes from 11/24/2020

Tri-Leads present: Gabriel Hamilton and Cole Devlin

5:30 – 6 PM:

- Introductions (12 people attended at least a portion of the meeting)
- Comfort Agreement
- Community Input and Concerns
  - Overdoses and suicides have risen at an alarming rate
  - Shelters – there are not enough
  - King County is trying to be creative in providing services (ex. pop-up tents) but more is needed

6 – 7:15 PM:

- Tyus Reed, Evelyn Clark, and Andre Clark gave a fantastic presentation on incorporating youth leadership into treatment
  - Highlights: Push/pull, chipping away, and shifting the dynamics

7:15 – 7:30 PM:

- Followed up on Youth Panel idea, shared potential timeframe
- Made announcement about there being no King County FYC meeting in December. Community members are encouraged to attend Washington State Community Connectors (WSCC) events instead
- Opened it up for closing comments

*Paul Davis was not in attendance unexpectedly, so there was no update on WISE at this meeting
