King County
Community Development Block Grant
(CDBG) Consortium

Notice of Fund Availability

King County estimates that $750,000 in federal CDBG funds will be available in 2022 to King County and the cities and towns participating in the King County CDBG Consortium. CDBG funds are provided to King County annually by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development under Title I of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974, as amended.

Activities eligible for funding include acquisition, construction and rehabilitation of non-profit and public facilities, public improvements, housing rehabilitation, economic development and relocation. All CDBG funded activities must be consistent with the King County Consortium Housing and Community Development Plan for 2020-2024.

Required Pre-Applications will be available on April 2nd, via ZoomGrants at this link:
www.kingcounty.gov/hcdfunding

These funds will be allocated by King County, cities and towns participating in the CDBG Consortium. For additional information regarding the 2021 allocation process for 2022 CDBG funds contact Laurie Wells, Community Development Program Manager, Homelessness, Housing and Community Development Division at (206) 263-8341 or see King County's web site at:
