Paper Recycling

DESCRIPTION. NOTES. "TRANSCRIPTS."

Conversation with Todd Burnstein, Recology, 18 minutes. Spoke about operating paper mills in Washington and Oregon. Todd shared the following notes and requested follow-up email: "10 mills in WA and OR currently accepting post-consumer fiber. Only OCC. Westrock (Tacoma), Caraustar (Tacoma), Sonoco (Sumner), Port Townsend Paper (Port Townsend), KapStone (Longview - formerly Longview Fibre), Georgia Pacific (Toledo), Georgia Pacific (Halsey - also accepts high-grade paper fiber), International Paper (Springfield), Norpac

Conversation with Justin Gast, the Recycling Partnership, 5 minutes. Spoke about Recycling Partnership research on paper recycling capacity on the West Coast. Justin referred me to his colleague, Jay Simmons. Sent

Conversation with Radi Simeonova, WA Office of Economic Development and Competitiveness, 14 minutes. Spoke about how her office is actively recruiting paper mill companies from across the world to move to WA and expand the local recycling capacity. Recommended we reach out to Brian Hatfield, shared a map of paper mills in WA (2015), and shared the following: "Concerns that paper mill operators have when looking to move to WA are high costs, taxes, and permitting issues. Many of these operations are in rural areas, so we are exploring tax credits for businesses in rural areas, or other tax incentives such as reduced rates. These are

Left voicemail with Moore and Associates on their general line. Follow up with an online form. Update 5/9. Received a personal email to send to. Will send.

Conversation with Shingo Yamazuki, WADoE, 24 minutes. Spoke about the PARIS database and records kept with the Department of Ecology. Mentioned that certain mills have different methods of record-keeping (for example, KapStone keeps a daily tonnage logged and reported to Ecology) and that production data is based on emissions, not necessarily source of materials. Agreed to share updated records from the PARIS Database with me for NORPAC, KapStone, and Port Townsend Paper, as well as contact information for Environmental Conference call with Janine Bogar, Stephanie Ogle, and Alli Kingfisher, WADoE, 46 minutes. Spoke about how Ecology mainly permits through wastewater and gas emissions, so their permit records may not include ALL paper mills in WA. Spoke about the distinction between kraft and non-kraft mills (sulfate use in kraft mills). Referred us to Dan Weston for Annual Recycling Reports (from 2015) that track "who sent what to whom." Referred us AFPA and NCASI for potential references, noting that confidentiality agreements will potentially limit access. They do NOT have any information about Caraustar. Recommended public disclosure requests as a way to gain information. Agreed to share contact information for Environmental Managers at each mill, and offered database support through the Ecology Database Coordinator--as well as access to the Ecology web

Call with Dan Gee. Spoke about the national trends and data for paper recycling. Great information in terms of articles. 20 min.

Left voicemail with receiving at International Paper in Springfield, OR. (541) 741-5700. 5 min.

Spoke to fibre representative at Caraustar Paper. 15 min.

Left voicemail and listened to automated pricing message at Sonoco Products. 5 min.

Spoke to Dan in Receiving at Port Townsend Paper Co. Great information about China's inspection process, purchases 40,000 tons of OCC per year. Little about pricing. 25 min.
