

Algona Transfer Station

Fact Sheet

Overview: Algona Transfer Station was constructed in the mid-1960s on 4.6 acres in the City of Algona. The facility is an open-sided direct dump style transfer building with a scalehouse and trailer parking areas. There are no recycling services at Algona. The transfer station is bordered by undeveloped land on the south, west, and north sides and the West Valley Highway on the east side. The station serves residents and businesses from the Auburn, Federal Way, Kent, and Pacific areas.

The station is more than 50 years old and will soon be replaced with a larger, modern facility that can offer a wide range of recycling options, support resource recovery, and improved efficiency through waste compaction.
