

ESJ Credits - Pro-equity practices, processes, and outcomes through capital project lifecycle for King County Sustainable Infrastructure Scorecard

1. Develop a project-specific ESJ plan – based on assessment of ESJ conditions and information gathered on priorities of stakeholders and existing and/or potential users Project-specific ESJ plan or substantive ESJ guidance is included in project charter – up to 2 pts	3. Assemble exemplary diversity in project and design teams that guide pro-equity development and build capacity among priority populations, consultants, and in-house staff Non-traditional perspectives included –up to 2 pts	5. Site, design, and construct to counter known disparities in conditions – enhance access to determinants through project characteristics and development model Demonstration of pro-equity effect – up to 4 pts	7. Advance economic justice via Priority Hire, Project Labor Agreement, SCS, SOAW, apprenticeships, and selecting contracts to advantage social just enterprises, and partner with companies and community-based organizations that advance economic justice Gradient based on % beyond requirements – up to 3 points	9. Innovation Exemplary practices, processes, or outcomes at any phase of the capital project lifecycle – up to 4 points
2. Stakeholder partnering and collaboration – Priority-population active participation in siting, design and/or programming, via community organization partnerships, multi-faceted outreach, and approaches to pro-equity involvement, and/or participatory budgeting Substantive priority and/or non-traditional perspectives included –up to 2 pts	4. Conduct equity impact review processes – to inform likely equity and social justice effects of siting, design and/or construction alternatives EIR is public and accessible – up to 2 pts	6. Realize priority elements of project’s ESJ plan – including process equity innovations, partnerships, features driven by those with the greatest need Validate plan accomplishments – up to 4 pts	8. Pro-equity sourcing – select site and building materials, equipment, and systems which have pro-equity upstream and supply chain effects (e.g. local suppliers) Based on % beyond requirements – up to 3 points

