158 Section 540 The Personnel Board.

163 established by ordinance. A personnel board member shall serve a five year term and 164 until ((his)) the member's successor is appointed or elected, with one member being 165 appointed each year. A majority of the county council, but not the county executive, may 166 remove a personnel board member for just cause after written charges have been served 167 on the personnel board member and a public hearing has been held by the county council.
168 The county council may provide for the compensation of personnel board members on a 169 per diem basis.

170 The personnel board shall report at least once a year to the county executive

178 not limited to the restoration of rank or pay, with or without loss of benefits and pay, and

179 the allocation and reallocation of positions. The decision of the personnel board shall be 180 final unless reviewed by a court of competent jurisdiction.

181 Section 630 Qualifications.

182 Each county officer holding an elective office shall be, at the time of ~~((his))~~ the 183 officer's appointment or election and at all times while ~~((he))~~ the officer holds office, at 184 least twenty-one years of age, a citizen of the United States and a resident and registered 185 voter of King County; and each councilmember shall be a resident of the district that the 186 councilmember represents. Any change in the boundaries of a councilmember's district 187 that causes the councilmember to be no longer a resident of the district that the 188 councilmember represents shall not disqualify the councilmember from holding office 189 during the remainder of the term for which the councilmember was elected or appointed.
190 Additional qualifications for those separately elected officials who head executive 191 departments may be established by ordinance.

192 Section 645 Sheriff; Election, Term of Office and Compensation.

193 The county sheriff shall be nominated and elected as a non-partisan office by the 194 voters of the county, and the term of office shall be four years and until ~~((his or her))~~ the 195 sheriff's successor is elected and qualified. The initial election for county sheriff shall be 196 at the general election in 1997. The county sheriff shall receive compensation as 197 provided by ordinance.

198 Section 680 Vacancies.

199 An elective county office shall become vacant upon the incumbent's death; 200 resignation; recall; conviction of a felony, crime involving moral turpitude, unlawful 201 destruction of court records, or other crime pertinent to ~~((his))~~ the incumbent's office;

202 declaration of incompetency by a court of competent jurisdiction; absence from the 203 county for a period of more than thirty days without the permission of a majority of the 204 county council; or failure to fulfill or continue to fulfill the qualifications for office; 205 provided, however, that an elective county office shall not become vacant as the result of 206 a criminal conviction or declaration of incompetency until the conviction or declaration 207 has become final and is no longer subject to appeal.

208 680.10 Designation, Appointment and Election to Fill Vacancy.

209 Immediately upon commencing their terms of office, the county executive, county 210 assessor, county director of elections and county sheriff shall each designate one or more 211 employees who serve as a deputy or assistant in such office to serve as an interim official
212 in the event of a vacancy in the elective office of the county executive, county assessor, 213 county director of elections or county sheriff, respectively.

214 Except for a designation made by the metropolitan county council, a designation 215 of an interim official shall only be effective if the county executive, county assessor, 216 county director of elections and county sheriff, each for ~~((his or her))~~ that officer's 217 elective office, complies with the following procedure; commits the designation to 218 writing; identifies the order of precedence if more than one county officer or employee is 219 designated; signs the written designation; has the written designation notarized; files the 220 written designation with the county office responsible for records; and provides a copy of 221 the written designation to the chair of the metropolitan county council. The county 222 executive, county assessor, county director of elections and county sheriff may, at any 223 time, amend such designation by complying with the same procedure established for 224 making the designation.

225 In the event the county executive, county assessor, county director of elections or 226 county sheriff neglects or fails to make such a designation within seven calendar days of 227 commencing (~~his or her~~) that person's term of office, the metropolitan county council 228 may by ordinance designate one or more employees who serve as a deputy or assistant in 229 such office to serve as an interim official in the event of a vacancy in the elective office 230 of the county executive, county assessor, county director of elections or county sheriff, 231 respectively. A designation made by the metropolitan county council shall be effective 232 upon adoption of the ordinance therefor and may be amended by ordinance; provided that 233 a designation by the county executive, county assessor, county director of elections or 234 county sheriff which occurs subsequent to the adoption of an ordinance shall take 235 precedence over the designation by ordinance.

236 The designated county officer or employee shall immediately upon the occurrence 237 of a vacancy serve as the interim official and shall exercise all the powers and duties of 238 the office granted by this charter and general law until an acting official is appointed as 239 provided in this section.

240 The metropolitan county council shall, after being appraised of a vacancy in the 241 elective office of county executive, county assessor, county director of elections or 242 county sheriff, fill the vacancy by the appointment of an employee who served as a 243 deputy or assistant in such office at the time the vacancy occurred as an acting official to 244 perform all necessary duties to continue normal office operations. The acting official 245 shall serve until the vacancy is filled by appointment pursuant to general law for 246 nonpartisan county elective offices.

247 A vacancy in an elective county office shall be filled at the next primary and 248 general elections which occur in the county; provided that an election to fill the vacancy
249 shall not be held if the successor to the vacated office will be elected at the next general 250 election as provided in Sections 640 and 645 of this charter. The term of office of an 251 officer who has been elected to fill a vacancy shall only be for the unexpired portion of 252 the term of the officer whose office has become vacant and shall commence as soon as he 253 or she is elected and qualified.

254 A majority of the county council may temporarily fill a vacancy by appointment 255 until the vacancy has been filled by election or the successor to the office has been 256 elected and qualified.

257 Section 690 Statement of Campaign Contributions and Expenditures.

258 Every candidate for nomination or election to an elective county office shall, 259 within ten days after the primary, general or special election as the case may be, file an 260 itemized statement with the executive department responsible for conducting elections 261 showing all campaign contributions and pledges of (~~manpower~~) labor and material 262 made to the candidate or on the candidate's behalf and all campaign expenditures and 263 obligations incurred by the candidate or on the candidate's behalf. Such statement when 264 filed shall be a public record. The county council shall by ordinance prescribe the form 265 of such statement. Timely filing of a statement of campaign receipts and expenditures
266 with the Washington State Public Disclosure Commission in accordance with chapter 267 42.17 RCW satisfies the filing obligations of this section. A willful violation of this 268 section shall disqualify the candidate from holding county elective office.

269 Section 710 Composition, Appointment, Removal.

270 The board of appeals shall be composed of seven members appointed by the 271 county executive subject to confirmation by a majority of the county council. Each 272 member of the board of appeals shall serve a four year term and until ((his)) the member's 273 successor is appointed. Two members shall be appointed each year; except that every 274 fourth year, only one member shall be appointed. A majority of the county council, but 275 not the county executive, may remove a board of appeals member for just cause after 276 written charges have been served on the board of appeals member and a public hearing 277 has been held by the county council. The county council shall provide for the 278 compensation of the board of appeals members on a per diem basis.

279 Section 820 Conflict of Interest.

280 The county council shall adopt an ordinance prohibiting an officer or employee of 281 the county when it might conflict with the performance of ((his)) the officer's or 282 employee's official duties from directly or indirectly; receiving or having any financial 283 interest in any sale to or by the county of any service or property; accepting or seeking 284 for others any service or thing of value on more favorable terms than those granted to the 285 public generally from any person, firm or corporation having dealings with county; or 286 accepting any gift from any person, firm or corporation having dealings with the county.
287 The ordinance shall include civil and criminal penalties for the negligent or willful 288 violation of this section by any county officer or employee or by any person, firm or 289 corporation having dealings with the county.

290 Section 843 Freedom of religion guarantee.

291 Absolute freedom of conscience in all matters of religious sentiment, belief and 292 worship, shall be guaranteed to every individual, and no one shall be molested or

293 disturbed in person or property on account of religion; but the liberty of conscience 294 hereby secured shall not be so construed as to excuse acts of licentiousness or justify 295 practices inconsistent with the peace and safety of the state. No public money or property 296 shall be appropriated for or applied to any religious worship, exercise or instruction, or 297 the support of any religious establishment: ~~((PROVIDED, HOWEVER, T))~~provided, 298 however, that this section shall not be so construed as to forbid the employment by the 299 county of a chaplain for such of the county custodial, correctional, and mental 300 institutions, or by a county public hospital, health care facility, or hospice, as may be 301 allowed by law. No religious qualification shall be required for any public office or 302 employment, nor shall any person be incompetent as a witness or juror, in consequence of 303 ~~((his))~~ the person's opinion on matters of religion, nor be questioned in any court of 304 justice touching ~~((his))~~ the person's religious belief to affect the weight of ~~((his))~~ the 305 person's testimony. This section shall not diminish or limit any other protections 306 guaranteed by Article I, Section 11 of the Washington State Constitution or by the first 307 amendment of the United States Constitution.

308 Section 850 Delegation of Authority.

309 Any power or duty of a county officer except the veto power of the county 310 executive may be delegated by that officer to another officer or employee under ~~((his))~~ 311 the delegating officer's control and supervision; provided, however, that the delegating 312 officer shall continue to be responsible for the exercise of the power or the performance 313 of the duty delegated. The county council shall not delegate its legislative power except 314 to the extent that it delegates to a county officer the authority to promulgate regulations in 315 accordance with adequate standards established by the county council.

316 Section 870 Additional Compensation.

317 Any county officer or employee who is compensated by salary shall not receive 318 any additional compensation for serving on any board or commission or in any other 319 position established by or pursuant to this charter. An elected officer of the county shall 320 not be appointed to any other compensated county office or position during ~~((his))~~ the 321 officer's term of office.

322 Section 895 Mandatory Inquests.

323 An inquest shall be held to investigate the causes and circumstances of any death 324 involving a member of the law enforcement agency of the county in the performance of 325 ~~((his))~~ the member's duties.

328 containing a comprehensive set of personnel rules as soon as possible, and the effective 329 date of the personnel system shall be no later than January 1, 1970. Prior to the effective
