

Project schedule

King County is in the design process for a replacement bridge, with final design, right-of-way acquisition and environmental permitting expected to be completed in 2022 and construction projected to begin in 2023.

