

King County Metro Commuter Van Self-Insurance Information

Notice to Involved Parties

King County is approved as a self-insured public entity under Chapter 211, Laws of 1949 (Financial Responsibility Law), and assigned number S.I. 33 by the State of Washington Department of Motor Vehicles. Operation of this vehicle falls within this coverage. King County is self-insured and therefore information or questions concerning this incident should be directed to the King County Risk Management Office at 206-263-2250. Information is also available via the web at www.kingcounty.gov/claims.

King County department involved: _____

County driver's name: _____

Date of incident: _____

County vehicle license number: _____

County vehicle equipment number: _____

King County

King County Risk Management

Claims Information

King County

If you believe King County is at fault, you may file a claim for damages online at www.kingcounty.gov/claims or print and mail the form to King County's Office of Risk Management Services (KCORM).

Send the claim form to:

King County Office of Risk
Management Services
King Street Center
201 South Jackson Street, Suite 320
Seattle, WA 98104

206-263-2250
Fax 206-296-0949 TTY
1-800-833-6388

An investigation will begin after the claim form is filed with KCORM.

If you have additional questions, or require assistance, please contact KCORM at the above phone number.