How to Recruit Riders for your Vanpool!

- RideshareOnline.com

Visit www.RideshareOnline.com and log-in or sign-up for a free account—you can look for new riders to add to your group. You may also contact existing vanpoolers who have a similar route as yours to see if they have a waiting list that you may contact.

- Check in with You ETC!

Check in with your Employee Transportation Coordinator (ETC), commute services or human resources—they may be able to help spread the word to co-workers who live by you.

- Online/Social Media

Use Facebook, Craigslist, nextdoor.com, and other online social media to put the word out there that your van is actively recruiting riders.

- Get a Recruiting REWARD!

If you, or anyone currently in the KC Metro Vanpool program, find a new rider for your vanpool, then you may qualify to earn a \$50 reward card. Find a second or third person and earn another $50 card for each recruit.

- Give a Ticket-to-Ride

Encourage new riders to try your vanpool for up to three days for free! They can try it and if they like it they can join your van.

- Try a Little Networking

Talk up your group to your friends, co-workers, neighbors—they may know someone who could join your group.

- Post Riders Wanted Flyer

Post a Riders Wanted flyer at your work site or in your neighborhood.
