

JANUARY 2022

The Gathering Collaborative

TO TACKLE RACISM AS A PUBLIC HEALTH CRISIS IN
KING COUNTY

This is a vision of community "Ambassadors & Amplifiers", leaders trusted from communities most harmed by systemic racism and colonialism, brought together by Abigail Echo-Hawk, Ben Danielson and King County Executive Dow Constantine (the co-chairs), to ensure that The Gathering Collaborative is being done in a trustworthy way.

We invite you to join us.

Are you interested in...

- uplifting and sharing the wisdom of your community?
- centering those most harmed by racism?
- exercising Black and Indigenous power?
- holding King County government accountable to tackling racism?
- taking part in a community process to equitably spend $25 million of federal funds that starts to undo the harms of racism compounded by the pandemic?

Do you strive to...

- make a generational impact?
- build community-to-community capacity?
- influence how King County becomes an anti-racist government?

Then join the Gathering Collaborative!

Scan to share your interests & priorities

bit.ly/gathering\_collaborative

kingcounty.antiracism@gmail.com

Speak to King County employees

- 206-482-8710
- 206-263-1104
- 206-477-7245

Compensation will be available for interested members of The Gathering Collaborative who have been confirmed. Members are asked to attend a few meetings every month from February to December 2022, and they can attend as their capacity allows.
Need accommodations? Email: kingcounty.antiracism@gmail.com

King County