

KING COUNTY DISTRICT COURT
KING COUNTY, STATE OF WASHINGTON
OFFICE OF THE PRESIDING JUDGE

)       GENERAL ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER

)           Clerk's Action Required

)                       No. 12-002

)       Partial Closure of the Auburn Court )       Facility on November 1, 2012, and )       November 2, 2012, to Allow for Startup
)       and Testing of its Operations
)

---

King County District Court (KCDC) is taking over the operations and facility of the Auburn Municipal Court on November 1, 2012. KCDC must start up and test its operations, including computers and technological functions, in order to ensure that the Court is providing effective, accurate, and appropriate court services.

Pursuant to GR 21, the Presiding Judge hereby orders the partial closure of the Auburn Court Facility on November 1, 2012 and November 2, 2012. The facility will be closed for all purposes except time-sensitive video in-custody hearings for defendants being held at the SCORE jail. The public can continue to access KCDC at all of its other court facilities for information and emergency hearings.

DONE this 16th day of October, 2012.

---

Corinna D. Harn, Chief Presiding Judge
King County District Court