REQUIREMENTS OF THE LAW

Offenders required to register must appear in person at the Sheriff's office in their county of residence and provide the following information: Name, complete and accurate residential address (including apt. #, if applicable) or where he/she plans to stay if registering as lacking a fixed residence, date and place of birth, place of employment / school, crime for which convicted, date and place of conviction, aliases used, social security number, photograph and fingerprints. Registered sex offenders are also required to provide a DNA sample pursuant to RCW 43.43.754. Providing false, incorrect, or inaccurate address information could result in criminal charges being filed against you.

Registration shall occur at the King County Sheriff's Office, located in the King County Courthouse, 516 3rd Avenue, Seattle, WA 98104. As you enter from 3rd Avenue, the Sheriff's Office is on the 1st floor, to your left after you pass through security. Hours are Monday through Friday 8:30 AM to 4:00 PM, excluding holidays/ court closure days. After the initial registration, offenders who lack a fixed residence will report weekly at 500 4th Avenue, #200, Seattle, WA 98104.

WHAT ADDRESS SHOULD I REGISTER AT?

If you have a living situation that is a "fixed residence" as defined below, you must register to this address. Failure to do so may result in criminal charges. If you register as homeless or lacking a fixed residence, but actually have a fixed residence where you reside, criminal charges may be filed against you. If you register as lacking a fixed residence, but your situation changes and you acquire a fixed residence, you must register that change of address and circumstances with the Sheriff's Office.

Most homeless shelters will fall within the definition of "lacks a fixed residence," which requires that you report every week to the sheriff's office. However, some homeless shelters have transitional programs that allow for longer term stay that would meet the definition of "fixed residence." If you are residing in such a program, you must bring recently dated, written proof on agency letterhead confirming your residence in the program. This will allow you to register to this address as a fixed residence. If you leave the program and are no longer residing in the transitional program, you must reregister.

"Fixed residence" means a building that a person lawfully and habitually uses as living quarters a majority of the week. Uses as living quarters means to conduct activities consistent with the common understanding of residing, such as sleeping; eating; keeping personal belongings; receiving mail; and paying utilities, rent, or mortgage. A nonpermanent structure including, but not limited to, a motor home, travel trailer, camper, or boat may qualify as a residence provided it is lawfully and habitually used as living quarters a majority of the week, primarily kept at one location with a physical address, and the location it is kept at is either owned or rented by the person or used by the person with the permission of the owner or renter. A shelter program may qualify as a residence provided it is a shelter program designed to provide temporary living accommodations for the homeless, provides an offender with a personally assigned living space, and the offender is permitted to store belongings in the living space.

"Lacks a fixed residence" means the person does not have a living situation that meets the definition of a fixed residence and includes, but is not limited to, a shelter program designed to provide temporary living accommodations for the homeless, an outdoor sleeping location, or locations where the person does not have permission to stay.

OFFENDERS WHO LACK A FIXED RESIDENCE: Any offender who lacks a fixed residence and enters and remains within a new county for twenty-four hours is required to register with the county sheriff not more than three business days after entering the county. Offenders who lack a fixed residence and who are under the supervision of the department of corrections shall register in the county of their supervision. A person who lacks a fixed residence must report weekly, in person, to the sheriff of the county where he or she is registered. The weekly report shall be on a day specified by the county sheriff's office, which shall occur during normal business hours. (In King County, this weekly report may be on any day you choose during the week. However, you must report one time each week in order to remain in compliance.) The person must keep an accurate accounting of where he or she stays during the week and provide it to the county sheriff upon request. The lack of a fixed residence is a factor that may be considered in determining an offender's risk level and shall make the offender subject to disclosure of information to the public at large pursuant to RCW 4.24.550.

ADDRESS VERIFICATION: Sheriff's deputies or police officers may come to your home to verify your address. You may be required to verify and update your registration information at that time in conjunction with the address verification.

If you are currently attending or working at a public or private school or institution of higher learning, you must notify the county sheriff for the county of your residence, immediately.
